

Shelley (Charlotte) Erwin

I have been attending Emmanuel Church since December of 2022, when I moved to Middleburg from California. I was baptized at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Englewood, New Jersey (my birthplace), raised in the Congregational Church in Maine. I returned officially to the Episcopal Church through confirmation in 1984 at St. Luke's of the Mountains, La Crescenta, California. Since then I have been involved in many activities within the Church, including choir, handbell choir, Sunday School, Altar Guild, lector, Lay Eucharistic Minister and vestry. I have been professionally active as an English teacher, music history teacher, historian, author and archivist. At Emmanuel I am currently serving as usher and lector, while also working on improving Emmanuel's archives. I am married to Bryan Simms, with whom I have daughters Anne Simms and Martha Lorber, along with grandson Sam Lorber.
